

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME

SEMINAR

“WHY COMPLYING WITH COMPETITION LAW IS GOOD FOR YOUR BUSINESS?”

Thursday, November 19, 2015

Croatian Chamber of Economy,
Rooseveltovc trg 2, Zagreb, Croatia

8:30	Registration		Reception desk
9:00	Opening and Welcome Speeches	Luka Burilović President of Croatian Chamber of Economy and ICC Croatia	Hall C, Ground Floor
		Mladen Cerovac, LL.M. President of Council, Croatian Competition Agency
9:30	ICC Antitrust Compliance Toolkit, including SME Toolkit + Case Studies	ICC Representative -tbc-
10:15	National Antitrust Compliance Programme	Mirta Kapural, Ph.D. Independent Adviser, International and European Cooperation Department, Croatian Competition Agency
10:30	Coffee break		Business Club (-1)
11:00	Panel Discussion: How to successfully prepare and implement a compliance programme? - best practice	Moderator: Boris Babić Senior Partner, Babić & Partners, Zagreb	Hall C, Ground Floor
		Kaarli H. Eichhorn Executive Counsel - Competition Law & Government Relations, General Electric Company (GE)
		Esther Bronić Senior Counsel Central Europe South , Philip Morris Zagreb
		Diana Sergo Legal Counsel, Holcim Croatia
		Irena Kajganić Local Compliance Officer, Končar Power Transformers Ltd. (Joint Venture of Siemens and Končar)
12:00	Q&A / Conclusions / Certificate dissemination
12:30	Lunch & Networking		Business Club (-1)

Working languages : English and Croatian

DISCLAIMER: Speakers shall present their own views which do not necessarily correspond to the official views of their organisations.